Corn. Oats and Provisions Moved Up and Down Without Permanent Effect.

CHICAGO, March 15.—Dust storms in the northwest lifted the price of wheat today. A cold wave predicted for the winter crop belt tonight had a like effect. The advance, however, was not maintained and there was an irregular close, it higher than last night to it below. In corn, the markets suffered a net decline of a shade to it, but for oats a gain was made of 1-16 to i 20 to Provisions were up 2 to 20 to 20 ta compared with yesterday.

TO PROCEED TO MEXICO

BOSTON, March 15.—Adjt Gen, Gardner W. Pearson of the Massachusetts militia, in a statement made at his bome in Lowell, announced late last night that preparations have been made by the Massachusetts militia to respond to a call to duty in connection with the present maneuvers on the Mexican border. He said that the entire state militia could be mobilized within twenty-four hours. Company commanders have been "unofficially" notified of the possibilities and have been told to weed out their dead wood and recruit each company to sixty-three men fit for field work. All militia regiments which are without regularly constituted wagon trains have been directed to secure options on heavy wagons.

DENVER, March 15.—A point of interest to western shippers was decided Tuesday by Federal Judge Lewis, who held that a railroad could not charge a local and transient rate on live stock which was fed and watered en route on an interstate journey where the shipper already had paid the through rate. William B. Bishop of Monte Vista, Colo. shipped seven ears of sheep from Pendleton, Or., to Kansas City. At Pueblo the cars were sent to Alamosa, where the stock was fed and watered, and then the journey was resumed. The railroad sent Mr. Bishop a bill for the extra trip to Alamosa and he refused payment, the court sustaining him. COX PURGED OF CONTEMPT CHARGE

Judge Gorman, Against His Inclination, Allows Cincinnati Boss to Go Free.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, March 15 .- Judge Frank Gorman of the court of common pleas today dismissed the contempt charges against George B. Cox, banker and political leader.

and political leader.

He declared the utterances of Cox, which were published after the latter's indictment for perjury, were "insolent and false."

In dismissing the charges Judge Gorman followed the finding of a majority of the committee of three attorneys appointed to investigate the circumstances of the interview. Two of these men held that neither Cox nor the newspaper that published his remarks regarding the grand jury and the court was in contempt. The other member of the committee virtually absolved the newspaper but held that it was the province of the court to determine whether Cox should be held on the contempt charge.

Interest in the case overshadowed the Baschang bribery trial, which was held back for Judge Gorman's reading of his decision on Cox.

decision on Cox.

In this finding Judge Gorman said in part:

"There is no doubt in the mind of the court that George B. Cox, when he published his insolent and false statement on February 22 concerning this court and the grand jury, fully intended to produce it just such effect as the supreme court says that the statement in the Meyers case was intended and calculated to produce."

He said he agreed with the minority of the committee that Cox was guilty of contempt, but in view of the fact that an affidavit charging perjory had been by filed against him by Cox, he said he would abide by the findings of the majority of the committee.

"It is considered by the court to be the interest of larger justice and best for the interest of larger justice and best for the law in this community that no charges of contempt be preferred against said Cox at this time," said Judge Gorman.
